What you need to do

If you don't agree with the changes we made

- Call xxx-xxx-xxxx and have your account information available to review with us.
- You can also contact us by mailing the completed contact stub with any correspondence or documentation.
- If you contact us in writing within 60 days of the date of this notice, we'll reverse the change we made to your account. You don't need to provide an explanation or additional documents when you request the reversal, but we'll consider any information you provide us. However, if you don't provide us additional information that justifies the reversal and we believe the reversal is in error, we may forward your case for audit. After we forward your case, the audit staff will contact you within 5 to 6 weeks to fully explain the audit process and your rights, and you may need to provide an explanation or additional documents. After the audit, you'll have formal appeal rights, including the right to appeal our decision to the United States Tax Court before you have to pay the additional tax.
- If you don't contact us within 60 days, the change will not be reversed and you must pay any additional tax. You'll have no right to appeal our decision before payment of any additional tax. Following payment of the tax, however, you may file a claim for refund to dispute the change. Generally, you must submit the claim within 3 years of the date you filed the tax return, or within 2 years of the date of your last payment for this tax, whichever is later.
- We'll assume you agree with the information in this notice if we don't hear from you.
