Important message about your December 31, 2006 Form 1120

Your tax return doesn't match the information we have on file

We have received additional information from third parties that differs from the information you listed on your December 31, 2006 Form 1120.

What you need to do immediately

Review this notice and compare what you listed on your December 31, 2006 tax return to the amounts reported to the IRS by others.

If you agree with the information reported by other sources

- Complete, sign, and date the Response form on Page 3, and mail it to us so we receive it by August 3, 2008.

If you don't agree with the information reported by other sources

- Complete the Response form on Page 3, and send it to us along with a signed statement and any documentation that supports your claim so we receive it by August 3, 2008.

If we don't hear from you

If we don't receive a Response form from you by August 3, 2008 and the adjustment results in an increase to your tax, we will send you a notice stating the proposed changes to your tax return and the amount of additional tax you owe plus any penalties and interest that apply.

Differences between your December 31, 2006 Form 1120 and information from other sources

This section tells you specifically what income information the IRS received about you from third parties. This information doesn't match the information you reported on your tax return.

Use the table to compare the data the IRS received from others to the information you reported on your tax return to understand where the difference(s) occurred. To assist you in reviewing your income amounts, the table may include both reported and unreported amounts.

Misidentified income

If any of the income shown on this notice is not yours, send us the name, address, and Taxpayer ID number of the individual or company who received the income. Please notify the payers to correct their records to show the name and Taxpayer ID number of the recipient of income, so that future reports to us are accurate.

Next steps

- You don't need to file an amended tax return for December 31, 2006. We will make the correction when we receive your response. However, if you choose to file an amended tax return, write "CP2531" on the top of your amended federal tax return and attach it behind your completed Response form. Go to www.irs.gov to download Form 1120X or call 1-800-TAX-FORM [REDACTED].
- Please file an amended tax return for any other tax periods in which the same error occurred.
- We send information about these changes to state and local tax agencies, so if the changes we made apply, file an amended state or local tax return as soon as possible.

Additional information

- Visit www.irs.gov/cp2531.
- For tax forms, instructions, and publications, visit www.irs.gov or call 1-800-TAX-FORM [REDACTED].
- Review the enclosed Publication 3498-A, The Examination Process.
- Keep this notice for your records.

If you need assistance, please don't hesitate to contact us.
