Important information regarding your Form 2553

We referred your Form 2553, Election by a Small Business Corporation, for review

The Ogden service center referred your Form 2553 to our National office in Washington, DC, for review.

What you need to know

After we review your election and make a determination, we'll send you either a notice of acceptance or denial of your election. Until you're notified, you're considered a corporation and should file Form 1120, U.S. Corporation Income Tax Return when it is due.

Next steps

If you don't hear from us within 3 months from the date you filed your election, you can write to the address shown above. Please include a copy of this notice.
