What you need to do immediately—continued

Pay immediately—continued

- If you can't pay the amount due, pay as much as you can now and make payment arrangements that allow you to pay off the rest over time. Visit www.irs.gov/e-pay for more information about:
  -- Credit and debit card payments
  -- Electronic payments
  -- Installment and payment plans

  Or, call us at 1-800-829-0xxx to discuss your options.

If you've already paid your balance in full within the past 14 days or made payment arrangements, please disregard this notice.

If we don't hear from you

- If you don't pay $9,498.55 by March 23, 2016, interest will increase.
- If you don't pay the amount due or call us to make payment arrangements, we can file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien on your property at any time, if we haven't already done so.
- If the lien is in place, you may find it difficult to sell or borrow against your property. The tax lien would also appear on your credit report—which may harm your credit rating--and your creditors would also be publicly notified that the IRS has priority to seize your property.
- If you don't pay the amount due, we have the right to seize ("levy") your property.

Interest charges

We are required by law to charge interest when you do not pay your liability on time. We calculate interest on your ESRP from the date we first notify you of the amount due until you pay the amount you owe in full, including accrued interest. Interest rates are variable and may change quarterly. (Internal Revenue Code Section 6601)
