Message about your [REDACTED] Form [REDACTED]
You didn't file a Form [REDACTED] tax return

Our records show that you haven't filed your tax return for the tax year ending [REDACTED]. We sent you a previous notice informing you of this, but the notice may have been returned as undelivered or could not be mailed by the United States Postal Service (USPS).

What you need to do immediately

If you agree that you still need to file your [REDACTED] tax return

- Complete and sign your return, include a payment for any tax due, and mail it to us using the envelope provided.
- If you can't pay the amount due, pay as much as you can now and make payment arrangements that allow you to pay off the rest over time. Visit www.irs.gov and search for keyword: "tax payment options" for more information about:
 - Installment and payment agreements—download required forms or save time and money by applying online using the Online Payment Agreement application if you qualify
 - Automatic payment deductions from your bank account
 - Payroll deductions
 - Credit card payments

Or, call us at 1-[REDACTED] to discuss your options.

- You risk losing your refund if you don't file your return. If you are due a refund for withholding or estimated taxes, you must file your return to claim it by [return due date + 3 years + plus any extension of time to file]. The same rule applies to a right to claim tax credits such as the Earned Income Credit.

If you think we've made an error

Complete the Response form to explain whether you've already filed a return, or why you think you don't have to file one. Mail your completed Response form to us using the enclosed envelope.

If we don't hear from you

We may determine your tax for you. Penalty and interest charges may continue to accrue.

If you are owed a refund for the current tax year, or any prior year, it may be delayed because of this unfiled return.

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics (LITCs) are independent from the IRS. Some clinics serve individuals whose income is below a certain level and who need to resolve a tax problem. These clinics provide professional representation before the IRS or in court on audits, appeals, tax collection disputes, and other issues for free or for a small fee. Some clinics can provide information about taxpayer rights and responsibilities in many different languages for individuals who speak English as a second language. For more information and to find a clinic near you, see the LTC page on www.irs.gov/advocate or IRS Publication 4134, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic List. This publication is also available by calling 1-800-829-3676 or at your local IRS office.
