Annual reminder of shared responsibility payment for tax year 2016

Amount due: $999.99

The law requires us to send you a notice explaining the amount you owe for your shared responsibility payment for the year.

If you are already working with us to address the amount you owe, you don't need to do anything. However, if you have questions about this notice, you should ask your IRS representative.

To prevent additional interest charges, pay the amount due by February 20, 2017.

If you already paid your balance in full within the past 21 days or made payment arrangements, please disregard this notice.

What you need to do immediately

If you agree with the amount due and you're not working with an IRS representative

- Pay the amount due of $999.99 by February 20, 2017, to avoid additional interest charges.
- Pay online or mail a check or money order with the attached payment stub. You can pay online now at www.irs.gov/payments.

If you disagree with the amount due

Call us at 1-800-829-0922 to review your account with a representative. Be sure to have your account information available when you call.

We'll assume you agree with the information in this notice if we don't hear from you.

What you need to know

You owe a shared responsibility payment (SRP) because one or more members of your tax household didn't have minimum essential health coverage, per Internal Revenue Code Section 5000A. The SRP amount that you owe is not subject to a Notice of Federal Tax Lien filing, a levy on your property, or the failure-to-pay penalty. However, we charge interest on unpaid SRP balances. We may also apply your federal tax refunds to the SRP balance until it is paid in full.

Payment options

Pay now electronically

We offer free payment options to securely pay your bill directly from your checking or savings account. When you pay online or from your mobile device, you can:

- Receive instant confirmation of your payment
- Schedule payments in advance
- Modify or cancel a payment before the due date

You can also pay by debit or credit card for a small fee. To see all of our payment options, visit www.irs.gov/payments.

Payment plans

If you can't pay the full amount you owe, pay as much as you can now and make arrangements to pay your remaining balance. Visit www.irs.gov/paymentplan for more information on installment agreements and online payment agreements. You can also call us at 1-800-829-0922 to discuss your options.

Offer in Compromise

An offer in compromise allows you to settle your debt for less than the full amount you owe. If we accept your offer, you can pay with either a lump sum cash payment plan or periodic payment plan. To see if you qualify, use the Offer in Compromise Pre-Qualifier tool on our website. For more information, visit www.irs.gov/offers.

Account balance and payment history

For information on how to obtain your current account balance or payment history, go to www.irs.gov/balancedue.

If you already paid your balance in full within the past 21 days or made payment arrangements, please disregard this notice.

If you think we made a mistake, call 1-800-829-0922 to review your account.

If we don't hear from you

Pay $999.99 by February 20, 2017, to avoid additional interest charges.

If you don't pay the amount due or call to make payment arrangements, we will continue to send you annual reminder notices of your balance due until the statute of limitations for collection expires.

Interest charges

We are required by law to charge interest when you do not pay your liability on time. We calculate interest on your shared responsibility payment from the date we first notify you of the amount due until you pay the amount you owe in full, including accrued interest. Interest rates are variable and may change quarterly. (Internal Revenue Code Section 6601)

Description	Amount
