Message about your Earned Income Credit (EIC) We're not allowing your credit

You were banned from claiming the Earned Income Credit because you intentionally disregarded the rules or made a fraudulent claim.

Because your ban is still in effect, we are not allowing your credit. You cannot claim the EIC until 2018.

What you need to do

No further action is needed on your part.

Next Steps

We'll send you a notice with additional information and instructions within 30 days.

Additional information

- Visit irs.gov/cp75c.
- Review the enclosed document:
 - The Examination Process (Form 3948-A) which describes your appeal rights.
- For tax forms, instructions, and publications, visit www.irs.gov or call 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).
- Low Income Taxpayer Clinics are independent organizations that provide low income taxpayers with representation in federal tax controversies with the IRS for free or for a nominal charge. The clinics also provide taxpayer education and outreach for taxpayers who speak English as a second language. Publication 4134, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic List, provides information on clinics in your area.
- The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) is an independent organization within the IRS whose employees assist taxpayers who are experiencing economic harm, who are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, or who believe that an IRS system or procedure is not working as it should. If you believe you are eligible for TAS assistance, you can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059. For more information, go to www.irs.gov/advocate.
- Keep this notice for your records.

If you need assistance, please don't hesitate to contact us.
